CAK announces new tennis coach

For immediate release

February 1, 2018 (Knoxville, TN) - Christian Academy of Knoxville (CAK) has announced that Mike Davis will be the new boys head tennis coach for the Warriors. He replaces Travis Fields, who stepped down earlier in the year to pursue an advanced degree.

Davis has played competitive tennis since 1968. A Bearden High School graduate, he earned a four-year tennis scholarship to The Citadel, where he served as team captain and earned the Marion S. Lewis Award - the highest award given to a tennis player at the military college.

Early in his tennis career, Davis was the tennis pro at the Desert Princess Country Club in Cathedral City, Calif., as well as the tennis pro at Lake Mirage Racquet Club in Rancho Mirage, Calif. More recently, Davis served as the president of the Knoxville Racquet Club.

Professionally, Davis is the owner/president of Health Care Plus, Inc. He also currently serves as a deacon at Central Baptist Church Bearden.

"Coach Davis came to us truly through the power of prayer," said Ried Estus, athletic director for CAK. "When we looked at the qualities and characteristics we wanted in our next tennis coach, Coach Davis was absolutely the type of person we were praying for. He is everything our parents would want in a Godly leader, and we can't wait to see where he takes our tennis program this year."

"I know some of the players on the team, and I am very excited to share my passion for tennis and my love for Jesus with this group of quality young men," said Davis. "CAK has a rich tradition of success on the tennis court and we will continue to work hard to compete for championships. My goal for the team is to grow spiritually, get stronger physically, and improve their tennis acumen while having fun and honoring Jesus Christ."
